

Mammal crossword

ACROSS

- This stubborn mammal lives in a burrow.
- This mammal eats gum leaves.
- A very big hop.
- There are not many numbats _____ in the wild.
- Koalas eat the leaves of this tree.
- The part of a tree where a koala snoozes.
- How many possums live in our suburbs? L____!
- Carnivores eat this.
- Flying-foxes eat blossoms and _____.

DOWN

- How kangaroos move.
- This animal is a small kangaroo.
- This mammal flies and may sleep in a cave.
- A _____ kangaroo lives in the rainforest.
- Many Aussie mammals like to eat native _____.
- A large hopping animal that keeps its joey in its pouch.
- The hopping _____ is a small rodent with long back legs.
- A big hole in the Earth where bats live.
- Furry feral pests.
- We m _____ look after our native animals.