

Grace the Green Sea Turtle

Number the events from 1–13 in the order they happened in the Grace the Green Sea Turtle story.

- Grace stops to eat some seagrass.
- Grace has to avoid the sharks.
- Grace lays nearly 200 eggs.
- Grace mates with a male turtle.
- Grace's babies hatch after a few months.
- Grace has to dive deep to avoid the boat propellers.
- Grace drags herself up onto the beach.
- Grace has to swim more than 2000 km.
- Grace pops her head out of the water.
- In 20 years, Grace's babies will come to the same beach to lay their eggs.
- The baby turtles make their way out to sea.
- Grace sees rubbish on a beach.
- Grace digs a deep hole with her flippers.

Grace the Green Sea Turtle

Match the words from the Grace the Green Sea Turtle story by drawing a line to their definitions. The glossary in the book will help you.

littered

to come out of an egg

shallow

the parts at the back of an animal that are used for swimming

sense

a way of acting without thinking about it

skirt

spread across an area in a messy way

hind flippers

when animals come together to produce young

hatch

an important job or assignment

instincts

the part of a boat that spins and makes it move

shoreline

to have a feeling; to notice

mission

not very deep

mate

the line where a body of water and the shore meet

propellers

to move around the edge of something

NAME